went to dinner with relatives, it was pretty good. I would say the price is higher than most places, but the food was delicious. My only complaint would be that they had only one server, but I think that was due to illness. The bartender and the hostess helped the only server they had, and things went quite smoothly. All in all, a good experience. I would recommend, but advise you to consider the menu (and prices) be... read more.
