Good sandwiches, I got the pastrami and my friend got the salmon ox, really delicious, good meat-pink ratio. But it is a premium bagel shop, each sandwich was about $8-9. If you go there for a good sandwich, this is the place, but if you want the best bang for the buck, try the subway read more. What User doesn't like about Bruegger's Bagels:

Bagel was just fine, but they eliminated their dining area (won't even let you stand and eat) and didn't mention that until my kids were already started on their breakfast. What is the point of a breakfast bagel shop where you can't eat? They also ask for tips at the counter. read more.
