I was in town for work and decided to try out the place, it was nice with gas-oil signs and old trucks as I would have done. I had the pulled pork plate and it had a smoky taste like I never experienced before and I eat at another BBQ joint almost weekly... it's hard to get my attention, but that did. The portions were well dimensioned, good selection of sauces and the service was timely and very friendly. If I didn'... read more.
