We've been driving to the Brass Tap for a few years and last night it was the first time it was average. I'm pretty sure it was because our server was new and it seemed overwhelmed on a busy Friday night. But our food came out warm, as if it was a bit sat and our starter came out after our dinner and was fresh and hot. My wife had to ask our server for another beer, but then the server went away without asking if som... read more. The Brass Tap from Greenfield is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the customers also love. Moreover, there are tasty American dishes, such as burgers and grilled meat, The meat is freshly prepared here on an open flame.
