I was looking for baklava all over SLC and could finally find some in the Karim Bakery! The owner was the sweetest person and explained the history of her family business. We asked him many questions about their baklava and other baked goods. They could immediately say how much love is placed in their products. We packed a few different baklava to try and so far they are super delicious! Can't wait to go back and try... read more. What Khair Alassas doesn't like about Karim Bakery:

This business is so weird, we called to get 15 bags of bread and then we get there under the snow, but they refuse to sell us. The old man such a clown started yelling that he can't sell us because he has different orders have more quantity of what we wanted to buy. these people are invalid to be in business at all. I don't know what type of mentality they have. I highly don't recommend anyone to buy from this business... read more.
