The Alley gets its name from the fact that the building originally houses a bowling alley, and although the lanes are long gone, the sport theme remains. The huge building houses numerous billiard tables, slot machines and one of the few golf simulators you will see in the area. The bar was pretty crowded, mostly with wing eaters, but I managed to find a place between two beautiful ladies named Wendy and Wanda. And no... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside, and into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available free of charge. The Alley Sportsbar from Central City is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to sit with friends or alone. Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub serves a large range of scrumptious and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine.
