We ordered 3 entrees and 2 appetizers for our family. We only liked one of the entrees, and the appetizers were good enough, but nothing special. The dish we liked was one of the more authentic ones apparently, so maybe that's why it was better? We got Szechuan chicken, which is apparently an "American" option—odd at the Szechuan house?! That was definitely not a fav. Overall, expensive dishes that we didn't enjoy ve... read more.
