What User likes about D J Bibingkahan: Happy to know that this Filipino restaurant is back in operation, as usual after the pandemic. We were told about the phone that we showed evidence of vaccinations per LA country mandate. But nobody took care of it. The line in the seat arrangement is a good distance from one another. Food quality and selection are about the same as before. Prices are particularly expensive. read more. What User doesn't like about D J Bibingkahan: I came to breakfast this morning and ordered two items. The food here is overpriced and the quality is garbage. I spent more than $20 on 2 pieces Chicharon Bulaklak (which tasted older than the cashier) and a bowl of carecars (with only one meat) and tasted with 2 cups of rice. Everyone who eats regularly knows that this is a demolition! It is better to go to Bamboo Bistro nearby and eat everything you can for the sa... read more. In the kitchen of D J Bibingkahan in Panorama City, original Asian spices delicious traditional menus are prepared, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. Even the versatile, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests, The meat is freshly grilled here on an open flame.
