I have lived in Florida, Massachusetts, and Tennessee...and these are some of the best Venezuelan food items I've tasted. After visiting for the first time, it truly became an antojito to eat an arepa, cachapa, pastelito, and an empanada not separately but all at once. It's an experience to taste the combination of flavors. Also, the owner is a very lovely person and it's admirable to see her run this all on her own.... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. A visit to Antojitos La Venezolana is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties.
