Large beer, great food, friendly server, pleasantly relaxed atmosphere. Your tents are amazing, and we had some good meals there too that were beautiful. They make their own tartaric acid sauce for the fish and chips! You can buy a breeder of beers that you love on tap and bring it home, which is a very nice touch. The one note I would make is that flights would be a nice supplement, currently you can only order a co... read more. What User doesn't like about Flying Saucer Draught Emporium:

First time here last night. I wanted to love it but didn't. The beer selection is large but struck me as uninspired and overpriced. Found one draft I liked and should've stuck with it since the other two were awful. Appetizers were bland and way overpriced for the smallish portions we received. There are better options in Addison. Flying Saucer has a fun atmosphere but that's not enough to make me want to come back. read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Flying Saucer Draught Emporium from Dallas is a good bar, They also present scrumptious South American dishes to you on the menu. Most often, the burgers of this place, which are among the highlights, are offered along with filling side dishes like french fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
