Such a unique restaurant, decor is rustic and beautiful and their food is delectable. The garlic is clearly the freshest and marinated to perfection. We had the clams and fried mozzarella to start and the rack of lamb and sausage orecchiette. The wait staff was attentive and so kind. Will definitely visit again when we're back in the area. For a place called The Garlic, I was sad that the bread and garlic were both cold. Overall dishes were great. The lamb appetizer was my favorite, which is why there's no photo. It was demolished before I even realized. The blueberry sauce and cheese paired with the tender and seasoned lamb lollipops perfectly. The puttanesca was also wonderful. read more. In the restaurant you will find a bit of this and a bit of that, paired with their popular Tapas.
