This shop has great ambiance, coziness, and service. The food is pretty good, with the fancy sushi rolls being a highlight. The ramen is decent, although noodle quality is not superb. Drinks are creative and look just like the pictures. Overall a good option for a pleasant and quiet meal. read more. What S K doesn't like about Burosu Ramen:
The food looks better than it tastes. I ordered the Chirashi and Reddo ramen. The quality of fish was meh. The rice wasn't hot or warm, but tuna were grey/purple on one side. As for the ramen, paper-thin naruto and they give you very little soup enough for half of the noodles and ingredients). Not great : read more.
