Grandma and I went here for lunch. It was busy but our food arrived quickly. Usually I would assume that because of that the food wouldn't be good, but the good here is fantastic. I had one of the best sandwiches of my life (the bayou cuban) and some pretty darn good potato salad. My Grandma loved her food as well. Place was clean and cute and the staff was friendly. I had the sliced brisket sandwich, potato salad, and banana pudding. The flavor and textures were fantastic. Will say 2 Dudes Brew and Que had better banana pudding. I'd prefer the Biscoff cookies to be added when they serve it so they are still crunchy. I'd also prefer to have whipped cream on top. It's pricey, but no doubt, I'll be back. read more.
