I have been to this establishment twice and the food and service were excellent both times. The food was delicious and the portions were grand. Also, the manager was very engaged and checked on the customers. Would recommend for a simple date night or nice family dining. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. What User doesn't like about Longhorn Steakhouse:

Had to keep looking for help, server never checked on us we had to get up and find him or waive him down or try to get help from someone else, also brought us a broken glass that was clearly leaking but he couldn't be concerned with the obvious such as a spoon for soup or a fictional glass to drink from but the food was read more.
