It was a cool experience. You didn't really have to deal with anyone period and then the bartender was the coolest . The owner sitting there at the end of the bar just as cool. i'd say the atmosphere was relaxed and good prices. Mixed bag of people and music kinda like a first date read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about The Dooryard:

Pros:-Fun concept-Clean, nice dining room-Good selection of beers-Friendly Bar service-Games and Legos to entertain kids-Plenty of indoor and outdoor seatingCons:-Several tapped beers, maybe 5/30-Half of the menu was unavailable -Really rude kitchen service-Food was meh (burnt popcorn, cold tortillas with tacos, microwave macaroni and cheese)-No changing table read more. In case you're craving some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: tasty dishes, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, and you can enjoy here fine American menus like Burger or Barbecue. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide assortment of beers from the region and the whole world.
