I work as a chef in Vermont and visited the area with my family we found this jewel, I had a chicken pie the fakey crust was so light and buttery it was absolutely amazing. Then I tried to say the apple turnover before it was halfway away, I was inside the baker: I will be back when I'm ever amazing in the area! read more. What Rick Trowel doesn't like about Boulangerie, A Proper Bakery:

I decided to try this place on my morning commute and was disappointed. For the prices I expected better attention to detail and food preparation. This ham and cheese croissant had a giant lump of ham in one corner that I found very unappetizing. I also got a sandwich for lunch which was more redeeming. The bread was extremely good but by lunch time half the sandwich was soggy. The layout of the very limited space in... read more.
