There we were with a group of nine when we were the 24. My daughter's birthday celebrated. We'll sit as soon as everyone gets to our group. Our waitress was excellent oh, so she messed up her bills, but it was completely understandable because there were so many of us and each of us paid differently. My steak was too good and they brought me another one without charges. We went there a few times and I had never had a... read more.
