We have been customers of this facility for many years, both here in Grayson and at their old location. It was worth it! They have been chosen for many years and for good reason best in Gwinnett! I personally love the extremely smooth texture of the custard while my wife loves the taste of the concrete that they call a grasshopper! We always have to go home a few pints of different flavors of Custard! If you're never... read more.

What User doesn't like about Berens Frozen Custard:

This place is so hit or miss. Sometimes it's good, but often it's just soup. I thought Custard was supposed to be thicker than ice, but that's not. It's more like soft serving. I tried her milkshake and was so disappointed because it was the consistency of the milk when she was handed over to me. It was literally frothy because it was just liquid. read more.
