We're here for our birthday. I was super excited to see the authentic dishes on the menu. The selection was amazing, both the red and green salsas were amazing. Unfortunately, due to our party size, no tipping was possible because the service was terrible. I think we might have seen the waitress four times. To take our order, bring us chips, deliver our order and another time when they refill a few of us a single dri... read more. Look forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
