From day one this place has been a winner. The owner is a super busy guy but when he's in he is super friendly and always quick to offer a sample of something new he's working on. The selection is always great and the flavors really pop. I'm personally a fan of the spicier offerings but I haven't had a bad popcorn from them yet. It's a bit off of the main road but it's a total hidden gem. One more thing they're dog f... read more. What User doesn't like about Popcorn Monkey:

We were referred to this place by a friend. Their store is very small and seems cramped and dirty. We got a few bags of popcorn, paid over $30 and it was not worth it. The Cheddar popcorn didn't really have any flavor, nor were my fingers covered in cedar, which is what I look for when getting gourmet Popcorn. The popcorn also did not taste fresh. You could tell it was popped a few days ago and even some pieces were... read more.
