Went here for their famous supreme croissant and we were told they get dropped at 8am, 12 and 4pm and the line usually starts forming about 45 minutes to an hour prior. We ordered coffee and pastries and waited in the line for the famous supreme croissant. Each person can only get one and the flavors were chocolate, pistachio and bourbon maple. The supreme was pretty delicious but to be honest it wasn't worth waitin... read more. What Denalia doesn't like about Lafayette Grand Café Bakery:

Experience was good but nothing exceptional. Quiche was tasty: buttery and creamy. Lemon blueberry pancakes had a nice tang and citrus flavor but could use more fruit/syrup because they were a bit dry towards the end. Overall, I'm not sure if the quality of the food justifies the price. Service was underwhelming. We arrived early and to a mostly empty restaurant, yet we waited for a frustratingly long time before our... read more.
