Out of all the shops I've been to so far, this shop had impeccable espresso choice and the pairing of espresso to their syrup ratios and milk made for delicious drinks that weren't too sweet but not just a smidge of flavor. On top of that, the workers and the customers were all kind and they seemed to have created a great community around their shop. Those two factors together has set them apart from all the other sh... Overall this was a disappointing coffee place. The environment was blah, the service wasn't great, and they prices were out of control. They charge an extra $1 to make the drink iced? It's less product and less work to make it! They also charge $1.25 for flavor and $1.25 for milk alternatives, which is just so steep. My drink ended up costing $1.50 more than the same order from every other place. Not worth it. read more.
