My husband and I were married on April 8, 2023 and were very fortunate to have choose Picameal as our caterer. The planning process was easy so many choices and Chef V was willing to go off the menu to make it special for us. Then the service at the wedding. My guests and I were treated like royalty. They were there with things you didn't even know you needed but did. They were so very attentive and friendly to all t... read more.
