The Card of Edo Hibachi from Columbia contains about 15 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $6.6. What Mark Cleveland likes about Edo Hibachi:

Not too welcoming but food is delicious just went recently and they went up and with that they have priced themselves out of competition i hope all the best for them.Food: 5/5 read more. What Barbara G doesn't like about Edo Hibachi:

This had to be the most disgusting Japanese food I have ever had. The Japanese spring rolls had the funkiest taste. I ate one through the other one away shrimp tempura I took one bite and through that away. The shrimp were like overcooked rubber inside of tempura. Unlike others have said the rice it's not like Japanese rice it was terribly undercooked . I did need something in my stomach so I ate a few of the carrots... read more. At Edo Hibachi, scrumptious meals from international cuisine are freshly made for you, there are also delectable vegetarian menus on the menu. Of course, we must not forget the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, and easily digestible Japanese meals are being made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat.
