It's truly the most beautiful dining area in south Los Angeles. I started eating here during lockdown because of the order window and how many people were always at it. The food is always tasty. Once I saw the outdoor patio it became my favorite place nearby. The trees and decor sort of feel like you walked into a magical world. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Taqueria

Tijuana:

This place is over rated. I wasn't impressed with the tacos. The taco prices are a bit high at $2.50 each and there extremely small. No homemade tortillas either . No bean and cheese burritos. Which was a let down for me. Horchata tasted from the machine instead of home made. I will not be recommending this place or coming back. I hope they change there menu and offer more items and better quality food and aguas. read more. Look forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here.
