Best Thai around, plus Jo and Bill are as personable as they come. The Larb, Thai Basil with Chicken, and Yum Talay are really good. It's not on the menu, but the spring rolls in the soft wrapper with peanut sauce are really great too. I get 3 or 4 things, and damn near spend the afternoon there, and as an added bonus, they're teaching me how to cuss in Thai, who knows, maybe because they want me to leave or somethin...
