I came here on a whim and ended up having some the best food in downtown Franklin. The shop is super cute and nice and the outside area is lovely. I was served by several baristas, Jessica, Izzy, and Alyssa, who were super sweet. They were very attentive and helped me find a drink that would fit my preferences. I ended up trying the mango iced tea with extra sweetener. I also got some awesome food including steak and... read more. The Food was good but it was disappointing that we were asked to move along with our silverware and drinks to the hotel lobby while we were still waiting for food only because the cafe was closing. They shouldn't have served the food so late or even taken the order if they knew they would have to ask us to leave the cafe. Very disappointing experience for such a pricey place! read more.
