OMG! For a Texan girl, I couldn't be any happier to finally give in to a food truck I recently discovered driving home from an appointment in Bellevue. The service was great-meaning friendly and greeted with smile when I ordered at the window. I ordered a burrito con avodaba (marinated pork) that was amazing! All the flavors were combined with a hint of spiciness with the jalapenos; the pork flavor was so tasty, along... read more. What User

doesn't like about El Maestro Del Taco:

The food was not bad. I didn't like the tacos, they were a bit bland for me, the quesadilla was good. Maybe the tacos are not my thing but that's okay. I asked for a spicy sauce which was just way too spicy, and I can eat spicy. This sauce just tasted like it was chilli powder in liquid form. Maybe that's how it is supposed to be. Otherwise it's alright if I want to get a quick bite to eat. It's at a convenient locati... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area.
