Finally, a restaurant worth spending money at in Augusta! The small plates approach is excellent. Fresh local ingredients prepared with care and finesse. The relaxed atmosphere is such a nice change from the crowded Chain restaurants all over town. We had wonderful selections from the daily menu including the farm raised venison, lamb ravioli, Quinoa and local greens, cider glazed beet, Maine fried potato wedges with... read more.

What User doesn't like about Oak And Lounge:

It's OK. It was $20 to get in on a Wednesday night and drinks are higher than other spots I purchase the same drink but not really giving extra kick. Normally patron margaritas are 10 at places. Here its 14. It's decent overall but too many reserved booths and didn't like I couldn't request a song because DJ said he was mixing for radio at the same time. I expect more than radio play songs. But kudos to the atmospher... read more. If you want to try delightful American dishes like burgers or barbecue, Oak And Lounge from Augusta is the place to be, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Here they also grill South American fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
