So let me put this out there first, this is fast food and don't have any other expectations of this as anything else. Yes they take a little long but that's because they're usually cooking their tenders in smaller batches. If you don't have 10-15mins to wait go somewhere else. With this being said their tenders are good, never really dry and the sauce is good. read more. What Samuel Santana Jr doesn't like about Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers:

Not one of my best locations especially for applying for a job I mean truly feel like time was wasted and the food was all right I felt as the chicken wasn't cooked correctly read more.
