Although the tacos are a bit on the small side, they are PACKED with flavor. I loved how crispy the carne asada was. I would make the drive back here just for these tacos in an instant. No questions asked.

Back in 1988 I used to come to this place with my family and we really liked it because they had more variety of items. For example, they used to sell lots of cute colorful bracelets and the churros were tastier because they put vanilla and cinnamon on them but nowadays they only sell you those small bars of flour with sugar that are quite disgusting. They don't even sell tacos anymore just seafood. I hope they impro... read more.
