Pretty good ayce kbbq experience. The quality of the meat is alright but not the best but that's what you get when you go to ayce. The brisket and pork belly were the best cuts. The kalbi which is usually my favorite was very tough and disappointing. The side dishes of egg and rice cakes were okay. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about The Cast Iron Pot 3:

This is the first non-home meal I had since I been back. One, this is an all you can eat shop but it's limited to three dishes at a time and each dish is cooked by the staff one at a time. Next dish is cooked only when you finish the first dish. I dont see that stated anywhere. So if you have a group of 6 people you can image how difficult it is to get enough food. That's not all you can eat. The meat is good but wasn't... read more. With original Asian spices scrumptious traditional courses are prepared in the kitchen of The Cast Iron Pot 3 in Broad Channel, Here, the barbecued food is freshly cooked on an open flame. Not to forget are the typical Korean menus like Kimchi, Bap and also Jjigae, which have a fixed place on the menu card and also on the tables of the guests, Besides, the creative blend of different meals with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion.
