Fairly good sushi with reasonable prices. Staff is friendly and helpful. Not a super trendy restaurant. But more like the great neighborhood sushi place that you can always depend on. read more. What Natalia G doesn't like about Sushi Nami Sandy Springs:

I have seen this restaurant decline so quickly. This will be my last time here after 10 years. They are compromising quality with cost and the prices are higher! . They used to plate nicely and the side dishes were fresh and colourful. Now it's sweet potatoes, potatoes, onions and steam broccoli. They don't even pay attention to the vegetable cuts. Good bye! never again ... read more.
