What User likes about Sherman Station: I give Sherman Station 5 stars. The food is outstanding and the prices extremely reasonable. There is always interesting people to talk to, conversation to be had. The owner, Bill, has a fascinating vintage collection in the back which he curated me though when I stopped by. The bartenders are outstanding and greet you by name...just a warm and friendly place. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What Jessica Schmidt doesn't like about Sherman Station: Completely disappointed. We called there to see if they were open and the guy said yeah until 7:30. Drove there with a group of 10 and the bar area was full. Asked for a table in the back because our 90-year-old grandfather was along and we had a 10-month-old. The guy was rude and declined us a table. Apparently he was the only one working. Offered to grab the food so he didn't have to do the running. Still a no. Must... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious meals from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food. The fine sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. Furthermore, you'll find fine American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu. At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
