What User likes about Dfac:

The days when the Air Force chow hall was higher than the Army's facilities is over! DFAC is a solid choice all of the time. The Thanksgiving meal they provided was fantastic. Bless the staff for what they do. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities.

What User doesn't like about Dfac:

I'm currently TDY here for training and I'm required to eat here. I get no per diem but they don't allow seconds or more than 1 item from meats or the other stuff. They won't even let you have 2 hashbrowns. This place is ran like a prison line. It's worse than basic training. The worse DFAC I have been to in my 30+ TDYs. read more. The chance to enjoy and feel like you're in Hollywood; that's doable in this lovingly designed diner, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. Fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes are also South American cooked here, and you have the opportunity to try delicious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue.
