A very nice place to have beer and food with friends. The beer selection was good and slushy wine drinks were a hit with a couple of the people in our party. The food was good and portions were decent. The line gets backed up at the bar for both food and beer so you do end up waiting in line a little more than you might like when you want another beer or food. That's the only slight issue. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. At The Station Public House from Auburn, there are delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as hot and cold drinks. Naturally, you can't miss out on the delicious burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. You can also discover scrumptious South American cuisine in the menu.
