What User likes about Beacon Rock Golf Course: My wife and I had breakfast here on two mornings while staying in North Bonneville. The food and service was excellent. On the second morning I had left my credit card on the table. While walking back to our B&B, the manager came riding up in a golf cart to give me my credit card. He went out of his way to do this while being busy with other customers He also provided us with a hiking map of the area. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. A visit to Beacon Rock Golf Course is particularly valuable due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties.
