Kyoto has a great lunch deal with two rolls and a soup for less than $10. The restaurant is clean, has great service, and is ADA accessible with to-go parking outside. FYI the omayashi soup is spicy. They can make it without mushrooms for you which I appreciated, but I wish I'd been more prepared for the spicy component. If spicy is not your thing or you're asking, how spicy is spicy, just order the miso soup instead... read more. What

User doesn't like about Kyoto Japanese Steak House:

As impressive as the interior is, and the number of locations they have I expected at least good food. I ordered the chicken katsu. The miso soup was watered down. The katsu was not seasoned, and the sauce was just thickened worcestershire sauce. I was accompanied with a small cup of rice (the same sized cup the soup was in), and when I asked if I may have more, I was told it would be a $2 extra charge. I substituted... read more.
