We went there for breakfast for the first time and they were quick to greet us and seat us at a table. The environment is friendly and the service was great. I really liked the food and we were served hot, fresh food with an authentic touch of Guatemala. I enjoyed eating there and hope that their business will prosper, because I see great potential rising out of a humble and delicious beginning. ¡Gracias por el maravill... read more. Incredibly expensive for a lunch. Everything was fine. But for the price, was just underwhelming. $20 lunch plates. And the guacamole app was $10 and included just a small scoop of guac that tasted like it had come from the grocery. It was fine. Side note I lived in Guatemala; so this isn't a review because I'm unfamiliar with the cuisine. read more.
