Chef Virginia catered our dinner event for 60+ people and the food was great. Loved the salmon fritters and halibut. The pasta bar was also a hit as it fed kids to adult so well. Our guests cannot stop commenting on the yummy food. She also helped us with all the plates, utensils, waterglasses. If I have another event in kenai area, I would use her again anyday. What User doesn't like about The Hearth Eatery Catering: I had my wedding catered recently and the food was absolutely delicious, just as in their restaurant! As far as the catering, the staff did not arrive until just after the ceremony with no communication stating they would be late.

We had agreed that the appetizers should be out and ready for the guests as they entered the reception for social hour. The guests ended up waiting at least a half hour before the apps came...
