I'm sad to say these ribs were dry, hard and inedible and pulled chicken dry without choice of sauce they give you. To be fair, they do open up your platter once made to show you your food and as the customer, your looking to make sure your order is correct not to judge quality which can't be judged visually. The sides were fine as I got baked beans, string beans and their seasonal sweet carmel apple cobbler. Custome... read more.
