Stopped off the highway for gas and saw this next door. Thought it was closed because of the front room construction, but we saw happy faces leaving. Decided to try it out. My husband got enchiladas that were great! I ordered a carnitas torta (sandwich). Next time I will order with less mayo, but after I used my knife to remove it from one slice of bun, it was excellent. Salsa was roasted and fresh, service was quick... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Get excited about the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers).
