I have to say this is definitely a great place for authentic Korean food. I love the kimchi there, it taste so fresh unlike supermarket kind, where it is very soggy. The kimchi tasted fresh, and I even brought some home to eat it with rice. I love their rice cake and their mackel fish dish. Recommended for anyone who loves korean food. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. Lovers of Korean cuisine are right at home here: The range includes Kimchi, a variety of diverse variations of Bap, alongside a multitude of exquisite Jjigae that enchant the taste buds.
