the place in itself is quite small, with only four dining chairs (not very comfortable chairs) and some outside seating as well. the curry chicken salad was good, lots of what seemed to be cabbage? the chicken was very thin, as I really couldn't find the chicken as I was eating. the onion bagel was delicious though. User doesn't like about Bacon St. Bagels:

It would be great if Bacon Street Bagel owners valued quality and consistency. It's so disheartening to order bagels week after week and never know if this will be the week that both the bagel will be a good rise AND there might be enough cream cheese provided. We have been ordering from BSB since they opened and are still waiting for this magic mix to occur. read more.
