One of the best fish and chips you can enjoy on the West Coast. Local cod with perfectly crispy batter. It's always worth the drive. Also excellent: their cioppino their clam chowder. Definitely come for the seafood. Order from the takeout window and if the weather is good, eat outside! It's worth it. If you're not the one driving, their mixed drinks are excellent. read more. What Meggie Muller doesn't like about Nick's Cove:

Got a friend's birthday. It was highly recommended, but we were very disappointed. Some food came out cold. There were no clams in the chowder (3 people ordered it and no one got clams). Too much celery in the Clam-Chowder. That was a great disappointment because I am most looking forward to fresh shells. Lack of spices during dishes. Overpriced. You need to order your food, then pick it up from the counter. Too casu... read more.

In case you're hungry some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delightful meals, prepared with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu. Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive assortment of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Furthermore, you'll find fine American meals, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, and you may look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine.
