Great food for a dive-y type restaurant! This is a basic costal Diner, nothing fancy. The staff were friendly, professional, and quick with service. Very casual attire/ beach cover ups are welcome (must be clothed with shoes). The crab claws were the largest we had this trip. You do have to drive to this restaurant if you are staying along the beach, parking along the side of restaurant and some spots in the back. Pl... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What Holly Seals doesn't like about

King Neptune's Seafood:

We visited King Neptune 's last Monday when we were on spring break. Jackie was our waitress, she was GREAT!!! She was so great, in fact, that my mom gave her a $20 bill for a tip. When I received the check, the total was $125. I wrote 'CASH ' on the line reserved for a credit card tip. I was very surprised later on when I saw that king Neptune 's charged me $145! So we paid $125 for the bill plus a $20 cash tip PLUS... read more. The
