The food was decent and the service was very good. Going to try again when not overly busy. My burger was kind of bland and I heard other people nearby complaining about their steaks being bland. The salad was swimming in dressing. I don't know who would think that's good. But I will give it another shot. read more. A selection of fine seafood meals is offered by the The Butcher Shop from Cordova, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Even South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice are grilled here, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
