What Zechariah Wintheiser likes about Feng Shui:

Nice atmosphere for dinner with friends or family. The staff was friendly and helpful with questions. I would give 5 stars if they were more variety for gluten-free sushi rolls. They had a few options, but mostly basic roles. Due to the not able to set the special rolls gluten-free, the server suggested that I select another item. I had rice noodles and Gf roasted rice, both of which were tasty. read more. You can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Bianca Ito G doesn't like about Feng Shui:

This location offers the buffet option. We went at around 2:30pm which was maybe close to their end of service hours as we saw some options of food were gone and not being replaced. There are a lot of hot food options rather than sushi. The buffet might be a good option if you just want to eat quickly and not looking for something in particular. read more. Expect extraordinary combinations of different products at Feng Shui - all according to the approach of a outstanding fusion cuisine, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Feng Shui. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
