I've lived in Texas for almost 24 years. After having lived in Chicago for nine years, I was convinced that great pizza could not be found in Texas. Some good pizza yes, but not great pizza. Campisi's has proved me wrong. Wow! Love their pizza. It's not deep dish. It's a thin crust. But, it's very good! read more. What Kallie Hermiston

doesn't like about Campisi's Egyptian Restaurant:

Worst experience of my life. Atmosphere was chaotic, stand hurt my back, food tasted like warm TV dinner, and service was terrible! The waiter was totally rude. They don't care what they repeat. They serve cracker butter instead of bread. Total demolition. Why is this a landmark of Dallas? If you don't have taste buds and don't mind throwing your money away, this place won't disappoint.
