It's like any other Village Inn. Although, as I have become regular, the staff is really friendly and they seem to be very careful about the usual food service stuff. I really enjoy a nice piece of cherry cake with whipped cream up to a freshly made breakfast and not many places have more cakes. I don't care to use the men's rooms. It's not terrible, it's just not convenient. The usual males, when I go, are quiet hea... read more.
